

MARC LÉGER

Mr. Léger's expertise relates to the machinery and process of government. His career in the New Brunswick public service extended over 26 years. He served as Clerk of the Executive Council and Secretary to Cabinet from 2013 to 2015. Prior to that he served as Deputy Minister in the Departments of Health; Post Secondary Education, Training and Labour; and Public Safety where he developed an understanding of policing and law enforcement. During his career in the civil service, he was recognized as a mentor to his peers and to the next generation of civil servants, and for his ability to forge productive partnerships.

In May 2015, Mr. Léger was one of three commissioners appointed to the New Brunswick Commission on Hydraulic Fracturing, a contentious and complex social and economic file. He was also a member of the National Panel on Marine Protection Area Standards from March to September 2018. His participation on the commission and the panel demonstrated his ability to work on complex issues and build bridges with people with opposing views.

An active member of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada (IPAC), Mr. Léger is currently on the board for the Fredericton chapter. He is chair of the Lieutenant Governor's Award for Excellence in Public Administration and the Donald G. Dennison Award for Public Administration created in 2016 for public servants both under the patronage of the Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Léger holds a Bachelor's Degree in Administration and a Bachelor's Degree in Arts (Philosophy) from the University of Ottawa and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Carleton University.
